

A Family Day of Reckoning in Lahore: A Gripping Tale of Love, Loss, and the Search for Truth

In the vibrant city of Lahore, Pakistan, a family is torn apart by a tragic event. As they struggle to come to terms with their grief, they must also confront the secrets that have been hidden for years.

The Bargain from the Bazaar: A Family's Day of Reckoning in Lahore by Haroon K Ullah

★★★★☆ 4 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 2262 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 258 pages

A Family Day of Reckoning in Lahore is a powerful novel that explores the complex themes of love, loss, and the search for truth. Set against the backdrop of Pakistan's rich culture and history, the novel tells the story of a family that is tested to its limits.

The novel begins with the death of the family's patriarch, a respected doctor who was killed in a car accident. His death sends shockwaves through the family, and his wife and children are left struggling to cope with their loss.

As the family grieves, they begin to uncover secrets that have been hidden for years. The patriarch had been keeping a second family, and his wife and children are devastated by the news.

The revelation of these secrets forces the family to confront their own relationships and beliefs. They must learn to forgive each other and themselves, and to find a way to move forward.

A Family Day of Reckoning in Lahore is a beautifully written and emotionally resonant novel that will stay with you long after you finish reading it. It is a story about love, loss, and the search for truth, and it is a testament to the resilience of the human spirit.

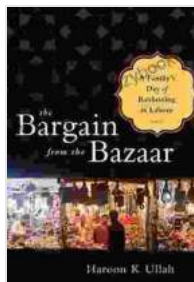

About the Author

Kamila Shamsie is a Pakistani-British novelist and essayist. She was born in Karachi, Pakistan, in 1973, and she studied at the University of Cambridge and the University of London.

Shamsie's work has been translated into over thirty languages, and she has received numerous awards, including the Orange Prize for Fiction and the Orwell Prize. She is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature and a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Shamsie's novels are known for their exploration of complex political and social issues. She has written about the partition of India and Pakistan, the war on terror, and the rise of religious extremism. Her work is often praised for its intelligence, compassion, and humor.

A Family Day of Reckoning in Lahore is Shamsie's seventh novel. It was published in 2017 and was met with critical acclaim. The novel was shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Award.

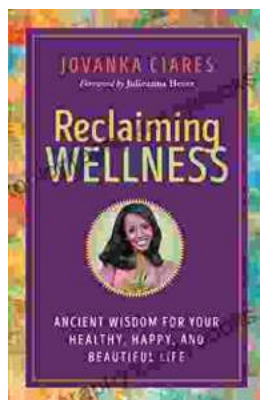

The Bargain from the Bazaar: A Family's Day of Reckoning in Lahore

by Haroon K Ullah

★★★★☆ 4 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 2262 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Word Wise : Enabled
Print length : 258 pages

Ancient Wisdom for Your Healthy, Happy, and Beautiful Life

In our fast-paced modern world, it can be easy to lose sight of the simple yet profound principles that have guided humans for centuries. The book, "Ancient Wisdom for Your..."

The Bully Tales From The Sheep Pen: A Must-Read for Anyone Who Has Ever Been Bullied

Bullying is a serious problem that affects millions of people every year. It can take many forms, from physical violence to verbal abuse to social...