The hijab is a headscarf worn by Muslim women. It is a symbol of modesty and faith, and it is a way for Muslim women to express their commitment to Islam.

There are many reasons why Muslim women choose to wear the hijab. Some women wear it because they believe it is a religious obligation. Others wear it because they want to express their cultural identity. And still others wear it because they believe it is a way to protect themselves from unwanted attention.

Whatever the reason, the hijab is a personal choice that should be made by each individual woman. It is not a sign of oppression, but rather a symbol of empowerment.

My Big Sister's Hijab

My Big Sister's Hijab is a book that teaches Muslim girls about the importance of wearing the hijab. The book is written in a simple and easy-to-understand style, and it includes beautiful illustrations that help to bring the story to life.

The book tells the story of a young Muslim girl named Amina. Amina is excited to start wearing the hijab, but she is also nervous about what her friends will think. Her big sister, Fatima, helps Amina to understand the importance of the hijab and to feel confident in her decision to wear it.

My Big Sister's Hijab is a valuable resource for Muslim girls who are learning about the hijab. The book provides a positive and supportive message about the importance of modesty and faith.

*If you are a Muslim girl who is interested in learning more about the hijab, I encourage you to read My Big Sister's Hijab.*

You can find the book at your local library or bookstore.
